PRESENTATIONS

Lead 101: Toxicity, Detection, Treatment
Morri E. Markowitz, MD

The speaker will provide an overview of how lead poisoning occurs and how it's treated in children and pregnant women. His presentation will include new sources and case studies.

Generations of Exposure to Lead Paint in Schools: A Well Kept Secret

Christopher Werth

In 2019, WNYC uncovered widespread lead-paint contamination in New York City public elementary schools and showed that the city's Department of Education has not consistently conducted required inspections over several years. The speaker will discuss how WNYC's newsroom broke the story and its impact on public policy.
